

PLANNING FOR QUALITY EDUCATION

The BOE shall meet for no longer than four hours and with not less than two weeks between sessions. The number of sessions shall be determined by the BOE. The sessions shall address the topic, "What is our school business and what should it be?"

The BOE shall explore alternative definitions of the school's business, think them through carefully, balance and resolve different and conflicting definitions as the BOE moves towards a consensus.

The BOE shall study the school's internal and external environment, including as representative but not limiting:

- The school's internal strengths and weaknesses;
- Existing plans and policies of the district.

The BOE shall develop clear objectives which can be measurable and attainable by specific dates as well as analyzing methods and procedures that will build on strengths, circumvent barriers and avoid weaknesses in achieving those objectives.
