

REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

The superintendent of schools shall prepare and disseminate such administrative rules and regulations as are necessary to implement board policies and shall conduct continuous review to update and maintain the effectiveness of the rules and regulations in carrying out policies.

The board of education shall retain the prerogative to review administrative rules and regulations and in so doing may suggest or direct that various rules be added, modified, or deleted.

(See also CMAD)