

CONSULTING

Certified employees may request to be excused from regular duty by the building principal and approved by the superintendent to serve as paid or unpaid consultants to other districts, government agencies or private industry. If the employee is granted paid leave to perform consulting services, any fee and/or honorarium paid to the employee up to a maximum amount equal to substitute's pay for the number of hours missed shall be returned to the district.